SCFOL President's Message:

--Nonie Fickling

Recently, the City of San Clemente hosted a lovely breakfast at the Wedgewood Wedding and Banquet Center, located at the San Clemente Municipal Golf Course, to honor its highest achieving volunteers. This year San Clemente Friends of the Library nominated two outstanding volunteers, Alma Savage and Joan Corsaro.

Alma Savage has been volunteering her time with San Clemente Friends of the Library for many years. She not only volunteers two or more days a week in the bookstore, but she is responsible for counting and depositing all bookstore income on a weekly basis, assists with the annual audit, volunteers for the First Sunday Sale, handles and organizes all Meet the Authors Luncheon ticket sales and table settings and is an expert at pricing old, rare and unusual books. She is an integral part of our Friends of the Library operation.

Joan Corsaro, or Joanie as her friends call her, has been volunteering her time with San Clemente Friends of the Library since its early existence. She is an expert at pricing and sorting book donations and her expertise has led to the procedures which are in place at the bookstore today. Joan volunteers her time twice each week as well as works the First Sunday Sale each month. She also assists Alma Savage in counting and depositing all bookstore income each week. She is also an integral part of our Friends of the Library operation.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALMA AND JOAN! San Clemente Friends of the Library is very lucky to have you both volunteering your valuable time for so many years and we thank you!!!

Library Quotes:

“She sounds like someone who spends a lot of time in libraries, which are the best sorts of people.”

— Catherynne M. Valente,

The Girl Who Circumnavigated Fairyland in a Ship of Her Own Making

“An original idea. That can't be too hard. The library must be full of them.”

— Stephen Fry

BRANCH MANAGERS REPORT

By Karen Wall, Senior Branch Manager San Clemente Library

Are you getting ready for summer? Whether you're traveling far and wide or staying close to home, the library can help you have fun and save money!

Those of you with e-Readers (such as a Kindle, Nook, or i-Pad) may already know that you can download books for free from the library's website, www.ocpl.org. Items downloaded "check out" for 1, 2 or 3 weeks (your choice!), and automatically return themselves. No late fees, ever! Titles offered run the gamut from classics to popular fiction to non-fiction, for children as well as adults. As always, you need to have an OC Public Libraries card and know your PIN in order to check out books, even electronic ones! If all this is news to you, you'd like a demonstration, or even some help getting started, stop by the Service Desk at the library.

If you and your family are staying closer to home this summer, everyone can take the Summer Library Challenge. Children, teens and adults can "Read for the Win!" and go green while participating. Reading programs run the month of July. Sign up anytime at ocpl.readingbydesign.org. Log the time you spend reading, earn digital badges for participating in community events, and stop by the library weekly for small prizes and drawing tickets. Special shows are on Friday afternoons at 2:00 pm next door in the Community Center Auditorium, and include magicians, live animals and puppets.

Membership in the Friends, shopping in the bookstore and donations all help support programming at the library year-round, and especially during the summer. We'll look forward to seeing all of you soon. Thanks for all you do!

RALPHS REWARDS CARD

If you haven't already linked your Ralphs Rewards Card to San Clemente Friends of the Library, it isn't too late!

All you need to do is take the Ralphs letter with you (download from our website) the next time that you shop and ask the cashier to scan the bar code at the bottom of the letter.

That's all there is to it! You will be all set until September of 2016! Thanks so much for helping SCFOL with this very easy fundraiser!
